

Subject Index 1984

Afghanistan: eurocommunism 30-31.

Arms control, see also disarmament: confidence-building measures 291-298, initiatives 317-320, military R&D 349-352, negotiations 317-320, politics 372-373, priorities 333-339, rationalizing armaments 373, self-control 290, vision 373-375.

Arms race, see also nuclear weapons and war: arms sales 220-223, Central America 355-366, conventional forces 333-335, doctrines 301-302, economy 374, Europe 4-5, horizontal escalation 305-306, insecurity 368-369, 374, instability 306-307, militarism 272, military R&D 371-373, military system 333-335, nuclear 335, 367-375, nuclear deterrence 367-370, peril 367, predicament 268, SS-20 missiles 341-353, technology 288-289.

Cambodia: eurocommunism 30-31.

Canada: attitude of church leaders 266-268.

Central America: conflict 355-366, militarisation 358-362, recommendations 365-366.

Churches & peace: American catholic bishops 197-204, 244-251; attitudes 67-77, 193-283; Canada 266-268, Christian Peace Conference 282-283, Conference Life and Peace 278-280, England 252-256, ethical & moral issues 193-283, Federal Republic of Germany 71-77, 205-212, 257-258; France 219-226, German Democratic Republic 213-218, 262-263; Lutheran World Federation 281, Netherlands 227-242, 264-265; Norway 269-270, Pope John Paul II 275-277, role 193-196, World Council of Churches 271-274.

Communism: antihegemonial forces 31-32, eurocommunism 25-35, Italy 25-35.

Conventional armaments: Europe 18-20.

Defence: alternative strategies 13-23, eurocommunism 25-35, Italian communists 33734.

Détente: churches in FRG 210-211, Europe 3-4, experience 375, military 311-312, Ostpolitik 13-23.

Development: control of military R&D 349-352, interdependence 81-86, military R&D 343-347, 371-373, specific action 88-90.

Disarmament, see also arms control, nuclear weapons and peace: arms reductions 317-320, churches in FRG 210-211, church of Norway 270, confidence-building measures 291-298, disengagement 309-311, 338-339; education 135-139, general and complete 372, initiatives 317-320, international measures 279-280, militarism 155-156, military détente 311-312, negotiations 275-277, 314-315, 317-320; non-intervention 336-338, nuclear freeze 336-338, nuclear weapons 272-274, 282-283; obstacles 335-336, political change 312-315, rationales 364-365, retreat 372, Stockholm conference 291-298, suggestions 336-340, women 155-156.

Disarmament education: global perspective 144-146, students 135-138.

Eastern Europe, see also GDR, Poland, Romania, Soviet Union: alternative defence 15-16, Christian Peace Conference 282-283, social policy 20-22.

England: attitudes of the church 252-256, church and the bomb 256, nuclear deterrence 253, nuclear weapons 254-255, peace education 171-184.

European security: all-European 8-10, assessment 302-303, broader context 297-280, Central Europe 307-308, coexistence 375, conceptual framework 292-293, confidence-building 291-298, confidence-building measures 293-296, détente 375, disengagement 305-315, doctrine 299-302, eurocommunism 25-36, modalities of disengagement 309-311, nordic region 285, nuclear weapons 327, perspectives 3-12, Stockholm conference 291-293, threats 305-307, Western Europe 6-8.

Federal Republic of Germany: alternative defence 13-23, Catholic bishops 259-261, Catholic church 206, churches and peace 205-212, churches and security debate 71-77, Evangelic church 205-206, 257-258; peace movements 111-123, Ostpolitik 13-23.

German Democratic Republic: church and peace 213-218, 262-263; Ostpolitik 13-23.

Honduras: conflict 355-366, militarisation 361, recommendations 354-366.

India: Gandhian experiment 125-133.

Interdependence: arms race 374, economic competition 375, specific action 88-90, world politics 79-91.

Italy: eurocommunism 25-36.

Militarism: Central America 358-362, women 155-156.

Military R&D: impact on arms race 372, mode of operation 371-372, structure 371-272.

Netherlands: church statements 233-239, political system 231-233, role of churches 227-242.

Nicaragua: conflict 355-366, militarisation 361-362, recommendations 365-366.

Non-violence: American Catholic bishops 199-200, Gandhian experiment 67-77, resistance principles 50-56.

Norway: bishops' statement 269-270, disarmament 270.

Nuclear deterrence: arms race 369-390, assessment 249-251, attitude of churches 193-283, challenged 279, church of England 252-255, doctrine

- 369-370, ethical judgement 208-210, French church 219-226, moral-theological critique 197-204, questioning 203-204, renunciation 262-263, theory 369-370, Western alliance 328-329, war-fighting 326.
- Nuclear weapons:* alternative defence 16-18, attitude of churches 193-283, ban 282-283, basic tenets 287-288, church of England 256, declaratory policy 324-325, East-West policies 322-323, effects 289, ethical dimensions 67-76, Evangelical Church in Germany 257-258, forces 335, German Catholic bishops 259-260, international law 321-322, Netherland churches 233-236, 264-265; neutron bomb 112-122, 236-237; no-first-use 16-20, 203, 321-331; Soviet Union 329-330, SS-20 missiles 341-351, unilateral commitment 324, United Nations 323-324, United States 327-328.
- Peace,* see also peace action, peace education, peace movements: attitudes of churches 193-283, conceptualization 53-65, concern for life 278, ethical issues 193-283, feminism 149-153, justice 269, 271-182, 278-279, nature 244, policies 111-123, role of churches 67-77, security 368-369, studies 171-172.
- Peace action:* ecclesiastical 213-218, Gandhian experiment 125-133, learning 157-162, Netherlands 237-239.
- Peace education:* 101-192, base groups 161-162, body attitudes 93-100, communication 95-99, cross-cultural 189, debates 103-109, dilemmas 104-107, disarmament 135-138, 144-146; end and means 150, equality and inequality 141-143, feminism 149-153, Gandhian experiment 125-133, global 185-192, grassroots 93-100, Great Britain 171-184, higher education 189-190, knowledge 139-141, literature 185-192, method 159-161, new impetus 101-102, opinions 140-141, perspectives 103-109, Romania 166-168, socialist countries 163-170, social literacy 157-159, socialization 146-147, threat perceptions 207-208, utopia 33, values 140-141.
- Peace movements:* apocalyptic horror 113-121, balance of power 49-50, convictions 38-40, crisis 47-48, East-West conflict 374-375, economic competition 375, effects 43-44, emotional climate 37-38, 40-41; Europe 37-40, 47-56; group dynamics 41-43, historical amnesia 40, internationalist 47, learning process 44, limited war 113-121, neutron bomb 112-112, non-violent resistance 50-56, nuclear pacifism 50, obstacles 333-340, opinion shift 111-112, re-armament 48, role of churches 67, vision 373-375.
- Peace research:* concept of peace 63-64, development issues 58-59, German 1-2.
- Poland:* eurocommunism 30-31.
- Romania:* peace education 166-168.
- Security,* see also European security: alternative defence 13-23, common 279, confidence-building measures 292-298, control of military R&D 349-352, doctrine 299-302, justice 272, national 285-290, peace 368-369, strategic factors 285-286, technology 288.
- Soviet Union:* balance of power 49-50, defence strategies 14-15, eurocommunism 25-35, hegemonial conflict 5-6, nuclear weapons 329-330, relations with the US 374-375, SS-20 missiles 341-353.
- Sweden:* disarmament proposals 289-290, Stockholm conference 291-298.
- Third World:* armaments 274, development 61-63, Gandhian experiment 125-133, military threats 58-59, peace 51-63, structural violence 59-61.
- United States of America:* balance of power 49-50, Catholic bishops on war and peace 197-204, 244-251; conflict in Central America 358, hegemonial conflict 5-6, nuclear weapons 327-328, relations with the Soviet Union 374-375.
- Violence:* Latin America 157, social 151-152.
- War:* attitudes of churches 193-283, ethical issues 193-293, feminism 151, jus in bello 246-247, just war 200-202, 244-246; limited war 113-123, 249, 326-327; limits 270, nuclear 202-203, 248-249, 325-326, opposition of churches 67-77, prevention 260-261, scenarios 299-301, students' attitudes 135-136, threat 272-277.

Author Index 1984

Aspelagh, Robert 139-148

Berg, Per 305-315

Blackaby, Frank 321-331

Brock, Lothar 172, 57-65

Brock-Utne, Birgit 149-153

Burns, Robin 139-148

Büttner, Christian 111-123

Canadian Church Leaders 266-268

Catholic Bishops, FRG 259-261

Catholic Bishops, USA 244-251

Christian Peace Conference 282-283

Christian World Conference 278-280

Church of England 252-256

Church of Norway 269-270

Diaz, Jaime 157-162

Evangelical Church, FRG 257-258

Everts, Philip P. 227-242

Federation of Protestant Churches, GDR 262-263

Fischer, Philomena Ahn-Ja 135-138

Forsberg, Randall 333-340

Garstecke, Joachim 213-218

Goldblat, Jozef 321-331, 355-366

Hagelin, Bjørn 341-353

Holst, Johan Jørgen 291-298

Jahn, Egbert 47-56

Klein, Jean 219-226

Kubbig, Bernd W. 67-77

Lodgaard, Sverre 305-315, 321-331
Lutheran World Federation 281

Millán, Victor 355-366

Müller, Harald 79-91

Nastase, Adrian 163-170

Netherlands Reformed Church 264-265

Peace Education Commission, IPRA 155-156

Pope John Paul II 275-277

Pradhan, Ram Chandra 125-134

Rathenow, Hans Fred 171-184

Risse-Kappen, Thomas 67-77, 205-212

Rode, Reinhard 79-91

Russett, Bruce M. 197-204

Schlotter, Peter 3-12

Schoch, Bruno 25-36

Senghaas, Dieter 299-303

Singer, J. David 317-320

Skjelsbæk, Kjell 193-196

Smoker, Paul 185-192

Steinweg, Reiner 93-100

Thee, Marek 367-376

Thunborg, Anders 285-290

Tiedtke, Stephan 13-23

Volmerg, Ute 37-45

World Council of Churches 271-274

Young, Nigel 103-109